```
print("=== ESCAPE THE ROOM ===") print("You wake up in a locked room. Find a way out!") print("Commands: look, take key, read note, open drawer, open door, inventory, qu inventory = []

drawer_open = False
code_known = False

while True:
    cmd = input("> ").strip().lower()

    if cmd == "look":
        print("You see a wooden desk with a drawer, a painting, and a locked door
        if "note" not in inventory:
            print("A crumpled note lies on the floor.")

    elif cmd == "take note":
        if "note" in inventory:
            print("You already have the note.")
        else:
            inventory.append("note")
            print("You picked up the note.")

    elif cmd == "read note":
        if "note" in inventory:
            print("The note says: 'The drawer code is 1234.'")
            code_known = True
        else:
            print("You don't have a note.")

    elif cmd == "open drawer":
        if drawer_open:
            print("The drawer is already open. It's empty now.") elif code_known:
            code = input("Enter the code: ").strip()
            if code == "1234":
                drawer_open = True
                print("Click! Inside the drawer you find a key.")
            else:
                print("Wrong code.")
        else:
            print("The drawer is locked with a 4-digit code. Maybe something in t elif cmd == "take key":

```

```
    if not drawer_open:
        print("What key?")
    elif "key" in inventory:
        print("You already have the key.")
    else:
        inventory.append("key") print("You took the key.")

elif cmd == "open door":
    if "key" in inventory:
        print("The key turns. The door swings open. YOU ESCAPED! 🎉")
        break
    print("The door is locked. You need a key.")

elif cmd == "inventory":
    print("You have:", ", ".join(inventory) if inventory else "nothing")

elif cmd == "quit":
    print("You gave up. Game over.")
    break

else:
    print("I don't understand that.")
```