```
print("You are locked in a room. There is a door and a box.")

has_key = False

while True:
    action = input("What do you do? (open box / open door): ").strip().lower()

    if action == "open box":
        has_key = True
        print("You found a key!")
    elif action == "open door":
        if has_key:
            print("The door opens. You escaped!") break
        print("The door is locked.")
    else:
        print("Try again.")
```